

CORONAVIRUS / COVID-19 UPDATE

We wish to reassure you as to the measures HJE is taking to remain fully operational during the current pandemic. We are operating as business as usual, albeit we have adapted and are now working remotely / working from home.

At present our directors and staff are in a position to visit clients where appropriate, but this is restricted due to public health restrictions being imposed. We also accept that the number of face to face meetings has had to be reduced, however we do have the means to undertake teleconferencing where required.

To protect not only ourselves, families, friends, clients, intermediaries and the public at large, we are keeping up to date with WHO, Public Health Wales and similar guidance and have taken appropriate steps to protect any visitors to our offices or anyone we may visit.

We will provide a further update should matters change, but should you have any questions please contact either of the Directors below or your usual contact.

In the meantime, on behalf of everyone at HJE we sincerely hope that you, your families, colleagues and friends remain safe and well.
